

AT SIX COMMERCIAL & ARTISTIC PHOTO & FILM SESSIONS POLICY

At Six is an attractive space for photo and film sessions. This policy is set to protect our guests, brand and values and applies to all commercial and artistic recording sessions taking place within At Six and our premises. We encourage guests to take casual photographs or videos via phones or non-professional cameras for their personal use.

- All commercial and artistic photo and film sessions need to be vetted, authorised and approved for by the Marketing Department
- Personal photographs and videos are not to be used for commercial or artistic purposes, if it comes to the attention of At Six that so is the case, At Six will charge a fee of 15.000 SEK
- Any person - guests and staff alike - has the right to their own personal privacy, any documentation of people within At Six without consent is strictly forbidden
- All artwork on display in At Six is subject to copyright and other intellectual property law. It is the responsibility of the photographer to secure appropriate permissions for the use of artwork images. Permission to photograph within At Six does not include permission to use images of copyrighted artwork and At Six is unable to provide such permissions.
- Objects / models must be fully and appropriately clothed in all public spaces
- At Six reserves the right to halt any photo and film sessions deemed to be disruptive. Staff members may approach photographers at any time and inquire of their reasons and approval
- At Six assumes no responsibility for loss, theft, or damage to any equipment or belongings
- Any unauthorised commercial or artistic photography or film sessions will be escorted from At Six
- At Six reserves the right to turn away photographers who are not operating in accordance with our rules and regulations, as well as photographers who have not made reservations with the Marketing Department